Re: Robert C. Laity v. State of NY

Dear Mr. Attorney:

The People of the State of New York submits this Memorandum to the Clerk of the Court of Appeals concerning whether it would be appropriate to file two additional (or supplemental) petitions directly appealed to support the Petition for Writ of Certiorari (N.Y.L.R. § 500[a][3]). The appeals which the Plaintiff desires to file are described below. The Plaintiff has filed a motion for leave to file the petitions, which is set forth in the accompanying Memorandum. The Plaintiff's motion for leave to file the petitions is granted.

Petitioner-appellant Robert C. Laity attempts to appeal from a memorandum and order of the Appellate Division, Third Department, that granted his application for leave to file a petition for a writ of certiorari.

The Plaintiff's motion for leave to file the petitions is granted because the general election tickets which allegedly did not satisfy the criteria to run for the office of President of the United States and (2) for purposes of voter registration, representing in print and on the website of the State Board of Elections that a candidate must be "such a Citizen," because the subject statement allegedly misrepresents the applicable statute.

The Plaintiff has also moved to this Court for leave to appeal from the Plaintiff's decision, (No. No. 2017-B46.) Respondent opposed the motion, which has been submitted to the Court.

Neither of the two claims which the Plaintiff is bringing before the Court relate to the claim concerning the 2016 presidential general election ballots, as that issue
