vs. Jeffrey H., et al., No. B24942, Div. 4 (Los Angeles County No. CK57697)

Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 8.340(b) Notification

Dear Sir/Madam:

I am court-appointed counsel for the appellant father Jeffrey H. Upon reviewing the appellate record, I discovered that the following items, which should be a normal part of the record on appeal, are missing:

1. Title XX's for March 21 through September 21, 2012, Father's Exhibit A, admitted by reference at jurisdictional hearing on October 25, 2012, and referred to frequently during jurisdictional and dispositional hearing. (RT 61, 64-65, 68, 76, 81.) The court stated on October 25 that the Title XX's were previously submitted, are in the court file, and that it would make them Father's A. (RT 61.)

2. Evidence Code section 730 evaluation of appellant by Michael P. Ward, Ph.D. on April 20, 2012, referred to in the jurisdiction/disposition report and at dispositional hearing on November 14, 2012. (CT 81-82; RT 75, 85-86.)

Pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rule 8.340, please prepare and file the supplemental record and send copies to all parties, including the California Appellate Project, Los Angeles.

Please return a file-stamped copy of this letter to me in the enclosed envelope. Thank you for your assistance.

Very truly yours,

Catherine C. Czar
