MONTGOMERY BLAIR SIBLEY THROWS GAUNTLET DOWN AT D.C. CIRCUIT COURT DEMANDING HEARING ON RESTRAINING ORDER PREVENTING HIM FROM RELEASING D.C. MADAM'S ESCORT RECORDS

WASHINGTON D.C. – Montgomery Blair Sibley, former attorney for Deborah Jeane Palfrey famously known as the D.C. Madam, today filed his *Petition for Writs of Mandamus, Prohibition, and Procedendum ad Justiciam*. In sum, the Petition seeks orders: (i) commanding the Clerk of the District Court to immediately file Sibley's Motion to Modify Restraining Order; (ii) commanding Chief Judge Roberts to cease all further involvement in the matter; and (iii) given the pressing public-interest exigencies of this matter, commanding the Judge assigned to the matter to immediately proceed to judgment on Sibley's Motion to Modify Restraining Order.

The filing was made possible by Sibley's GoFundMe campaign which, though seeking to raise $25,000, only raised $400; just enough to help pay for the $500 filing fee at the Circuit Court.. Given that the first major party convention is some 130 days away, Sibley will only wait two (2) weeks for the Circuit Court to rule before proceeding to the U.S. Supreme Court for a final determination of Sibley's First Amendment right and duty to publish matters of public concern singularly in his possession and to engage in a free discussion of the importance of the Verison Wireless records upon public events and public measures, thus discharging his right and duty to bring the government – and any person in authority – to the bar of public opinion for just criticism upon their conduct in the exercise of the authority which the People have conferred – and are preparing to confer – upon them.

More information can be found at Sibley's blog: Amo Probos
