

conducted in a manner and under such House rules that are overtly "Repugnant to the U.S. Constitution" and not in keeping with rights guaranteed by the Bill of Rights.

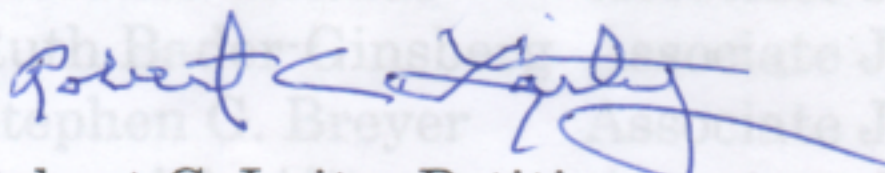

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

Too many people have given their lives and their fortunes since 1776 to now ignore what it means to be fairly treated.

On this day, November 2, 2019, I, Robert C. Laity, Clerk of the U.S. Supreme Court, have delivered to the Clerk of the U.S. Supreme Court, in a sealed envelope, one copy of the petition for Redress of Grievances and (8) copies which were separately

I again, as I have done in the past, urge this court to intervene to correct the flagrant abuse by the U.S. House of Representatives to deny basic fundamental fifth amendment rights to President Trump. This court has an obligation to see that Justice and fair play is always of primary concern.
